Charge -2:

"That the Government Servant, failed to supervise the staff working under his control which resulted in huge pendency of Mee-seva applications beyond SLA with the Subordinate staff, non-maintenance and improper maintenance of Official Records / Registers in his office".

Facts and Evidence:

During the Surprise check, the District Inspector ascertained the presence of VROs at O/o Tahasildar, Nuzendla and questioned about the distribution of Pattadar e-Passbooks received from the O/o Tahasildar, Nuzendla office which received from Chennai after printing. Initially all the VRO's told that they have distributed all pass books to the concerned pass book holders. When they were asked to produce 17 Register for the distribution of passbooks, they were unable to produce the same. It shows that they are not maintaining the 17 Register and there is no proof that they have distributed those Pass Books to the concerned. Hence the Government Servant failed to monitor the work of the subordinates.

At the request of District Inspector, ACB, the Deputy Tahasildar and Mandal Revenue Inspector have produced the applications pending with them. When they were scrutinized, the following applications are kept pending by the Deputy Tahasildar and Mandal Revenue Inspector beyond the SLA (stipulated time).
